

Privacy and Cookie Policy

Ntoboa Fund Limited

Notice:

Your privacy is extremely important to us. We have strict policies in place to ensure that any personal information you submit to us is collected and stored securely and is used only as reasonably necessary for the operation of this website.

This page sets out what type of data we collect when you browse Ntoboafund.com , how we use it and how it is kept secure.

Ntoboa Fund uses cookies to improve your browsing experience. By using this website and agreeing to this policy, you agree to the use of cookies in accordance with the terms described below.

Please see our Cookie Policy detailed below for more information.

1. Information Collected .

We may collect the following kinds of information when you use this website:

- Information about how you use this website and the device you use to browse it. This includes, but is not limited to, your browser type and version, operating system, which pages you visited, the length of your visit and your IP address.
- Any information you provide to us for the purposes of subscribing to website services, including newsletters and competition entries.

Any other information you choose to send to us, for any purposes.

1.1. Information from Social Networking Services

One of the specific features of the Services is that it may allow you to enable or log into the Services via various social networking services like Facebook or Twitter ("Social Networking Service(s)"). By directly integrating these services, we aim to make your online experiences richer and more personalized.

To take advantage of this feature, we will ask you to provide your credentials for the applicable Social Networking Service in order to log-in to our Services. When you add a Social Networking Services account to the Services or log into the Services using your Social Networking Services account, we will collect relevant information necessary to enable the Services to access that Social Networking Service and your data contained within that Social Networking Service.

As part of such integration, the Social Networking Service will provide us with access to certain information (including, for example, your name and photograph, as well as other information that you permit the Social Network Service to share with us) that you have provided to the Social Networking Service, and we will use, store, and disclose such information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. However, please remember that the manner in which Social Networking Services use, store, and disclose your information is governed by the policies of such third parties, and Ntoboa Fund shall have no liability or responsibility for the privacy practices or other actions of any Social Networking Services that may be enabled within the Services.

You may also have the option of posting your Services activities to Social Networking Services when you access content through the Services (for example, you may post to Facebook that you performed an activity on the Platform); you acknowledge that if you choose to use this feature, your friends, followers, and subscribers on any Social Networking Services you have enabled will be able to view such activity.

Please visit the privacy policy of the relevant Social Networking Service to find out more information about your rights and choices.

2. How we use your data

Personal information submitted to us via this website may be used for the purposes described below:

- Website administration
- To improve and personalize the website according to your interests
- To send you general or marketing communications, as well as email notifications if you have opted in to receive them
- To send you marketing communications relating to our business or the businesses of carefully selected third parties. We will only send this information if you have specifically agreed to receive it. You can opt out at any time by contacting us
- To handle queries or complaints sent by you to this website
- To maintain website security and help prevent fraud

We will only share your information with third parties for direct marketing purposes if you have opted into the service. You can unsubscribe at any time.

3. Mobile Services

If you access the Services through a mobile device, you agree that we may communicate with you regarding Ntoboa Fund by SMS, MMS, text message, or other electronic means to your mobile device. In the event you change or deactivate your mobile telephone number, you agree to promptly update your Ntoboa Fund account information to ensure that your messages are not misdirected.

Please note that your wireless service carrier's standard charges, data rates, and other fees may apply where you access the Services through a mobile device. In addition, downloading, installing, or using certain Services on a mobile device may be prohibited or restricted by your carrier, and not all Services may work with all carriers or devices.

By using the Services on a mobile device, you agree that we may communicate with you regarding Ntoboa Fund by SMS, MMS, text message, or other electronic means to your mobile device. In the event you change or deactivate your mobile telephone number, you agree to promptly update your Ntoboa Fund account information to ensure that your messages are not misdirected.

4. Our Disclosure of Information Collected Through the Services

There are certain circumstances in which we may share information collected through the Services with certain third parties without further notice to you, as set forth below:

4.1. Business Transfers:

As we develop our business, we might sell or buy businesses or assets. In the event of a corporate sale, merger, reorganization, dissolution, similar event, or steps taken in anticipation of such events (e.g., due diligence in a transaction), user information may be part of the transferred assets.

4.2. Agents, Consultants, Vendors and Related Third Parties:

Ntoboa Fund, like many businesses, sometimes hires other companies to perform certain business-related functions on its behalf, and we may provide access to or share your information with these companies so they can perform services for us. Examples of such functions include marketing, mailing information, data storage, security, fraud preventions, payment processing, legal services, and maintaining databases.

4.3. Legal Requirements:

Ntoboa Fund may access, disclose, transfer and preserve your information when we have a good faith belief that doing so is necessary to:

- (i) comply with the law including with subpoenas, search warrants, court orders, and other legal process; and respond to inquiries or requests from government, regulatory, law enforcement, public authorities, or content protection organizations;
- (ii) protect and defend the legal rights, privacy, safety or property of Ntoboa Fund, its affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, agents, contractors, or its users;
- (iii) permit us to pursue available remedies, commence, participate in, or defend litigation, or limit the damages we may sustain; or (iv) enforce this Privacy Policy or any applicable Terms of Service.

4.4. Aggregate and/or De-Identified Information

We may aggregate and/or de-identify your information so that the information no longer relates to you individually. Our use and disclosures of such aggregated or de-identified information is not subject to this Privacy Policy and may be disclosed to others without limitation and for any purpose.

4.5. Analytics

We may use third-party web analytics services on our Services, such as those of Google Analytics. These service providers use the sort of technology previously described in the “Cookies and other electronic technologies” section to help us analyze how users use the Services, including by noting the third-party website from which you arrive, and provide certain features to you. The information (including your IP address) collected by the technology will be disclosed to or collected directly by these service providers, who use the information to evaluate your use of the Services. This information may be used to place interest-based advertisements on the Platform. This may result in you seeing advertisements for our Platform when you visit other websites.

4.6. Unsolicited Information

Please be advised that some information you provide may be publicly accessible, such as information posted in forums or comment sections. We may also collect information through customer support communications, your communication to us of ideas for new products or modifications to existing products, and other unsolicited submissions (collectively, with publicly accessible information, “Unsolicited Information”). By sending us Unsolicited Information, you further (a) agree that we are under no obligation of confidentiality, express or implied, with respect to the Unsolicited Information, (b) acknowledge that we may have something similar to the Unsolicited Information already under consideration or in development, (c) grant us an irrevocable, non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, worldwide license to use, modify, prepare derivative works, publish, distribute and sublicense the Unsolicited Information, and (iv) irrevocably waive, and cause to be waived, against Ntoboa Fund and its users any claims and assertions of any moral rights contained in such Unsolicited Information. This Unsolicited Information section shall survive any termination of your account or the Services. This Privacy Policy otherwise does not apply to any information collected by Ntoboa Fund other than information collected through the Services.

5. Children

Our Services are not designed for use by individuals under the age of 18. If you are under the age of 18 please do not use the Services and/or submit any information through the Services. If you have reason to believe that a child under the age of 18 has provided personal information to Ntoboa Fund through the Services, please contact us support@Ntoboafund.com, and we will delete that information from our databases to the extent required by law.

6. Links to Other Web Sites

This Privacy Policy applies only to the Services. The Services may contain links to other web sites not operated or controlled by Ntoboa Fund (the "Third-Party Sites"). The policies and procedures we described here do not apply to the Third-Party Sites. The links from the Services do not imply that Ntoboa Fund endorses or has reviewed the Third-Party Sites. We suggest contacting those sites directly for information on their respective privacy policies.

7. Security

Ntoboa Fund has implemented technical and organizational security measures to protect the Personal Data provided via the Services from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. For example, limiting access to information only to employees and authorized service providers who need to know such information for the purposes of this Privacy Notice. However, no Internet or email transmission is ever fully secure or error free. In particular, email sent to or from the Services may not be secure. Therefore, you should take exceptional care in deciding what information you send to us via email. Please keep this in mind when disclosing any information to Ntoboa Fund via the Internet.

8. Do-Not-Track Signals

Do Not Track ("DNT") is a privacy preference that users can set in certain web browsers. We do not recognize or respond to browser-initiated DNT signals, as the Internet industry is currently still working toward defining exactly what DNT means, what it means to comply with DNT, and a common approach to responding to DNT.

9. Retention of your information

We will only retain the information for as long as necessary for the purpose for which that information was collected and to the extent permitted or required by applicable laws. When we no longer need to use your information, we will remove it from our systems and records and/or take step to anonymize it so that you can no longer be identified from it in accordance with our internal document retention policies.

10. Security of your personal information

Data security is very important to us and we take all reasonable steps to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. Any personal data you provide to us is stored on our secure servers and all electronic transactions completed through this website are encrypted. By using this website and accepting these terms, you acknowledge that the transmission of information over the internet is potentially insecure and that we cannot guarantee the security of data sent over the internet.

11. International data transfers

The personal information that we collect as described in this privacy policy and our Cookie Policy may be stored, processed in or transferred between any of the countries in which we operate so that we can use it in accordance with the terms set out in this privacy policy.

Any personal information that you provide via this website may be transferred to and stored in countries which do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in force in the European Economic Area.

By agreeing to this privacy policy, you acknowledge that any personal information you submit to us for publication via this website may subsequently be available to view on the internet and around the world. We cannot prevent the use or misuse of such information by others.

By accepting the terms of this privacy policy, you expressly agree to the transfer of your personal data as described above.

12. Amending this policy

This privacy policy may be updated without notice. New versions of the policy will be published on this website and we advise that you revisit this page to keep up with any changes. We may on occasion notify you of any changes to this privacy policy via email.

Your rights

You can instruct us to provide you with any data we hold about you at any time. Such requests will be fulfilled subject to the following conditions:

- The payment of an administration fee
- The supply of appropriate evidence of your identity. This includes a notarized copy of your passport and an original copy of a utility bill featuring your name and address. We reserve the right to request additional proof of your identity if necessary

We require these documents to protect the identities of our users and to ensure personal information is only disclosed to the person who has the right to receive it.

13. Third-party websites

Ntoboa Fund may contain links to other websites. We do not endorse and are not responsible for the content or operating practices of the third-party sites we link to.

The privacy policy set out on this page only pertains to Ntoboa Fund and doesn't cover any third-party websites, which will have their own privacy policies in place. We advise that you read the privacy policy of any third-party website as we cannot be held responsible for how they collect or use your data.

14. Updating your personal information

Please contact us if you need to make any changes to the personal data, we hold about you.

15. Cookie Policy

Ntoboafund.com uses a technology called 'cookies' to collect information on how our website is used.

Here is a brief list of the cookies we use and their purpose:

- Analytics – To store information such as the time you visited our website, whether or not you have visited the site before and the website you visited prior to Ntoboafund.com
- Personalisation – Tailoring the website based on how you interact with it so you are presented with more relevant and useful information.
- Social Media – These types of cookies are set by social networks such as Facebook, Twitter and YouTube and recognize which visitors use social media sites when viewing content on our website. They allow users to easily share content to social networks via the use of share buttons.
- ASP Session ID – This is a temporary cookie that contains a randomly generated anonymous identifier and expires at the end of your visit to our website.

The majority of cookies will expire within 30 days. However, the Analytics cookies may remain for longer.

The following content provides more detailed information about cookies and how they are used:

WHAT IS A COOKIE?

A cookie is a very small piece of information that is stored on your computer's hard drive or memory. When you visit a website, that website will ask your computer for permission to store this cookie, which often contains an anonymous unique identifier. This cookie, amongst other things, can be used to improve your experience by displaying information on the website which is considered to be more relevant to you.

HOW WE USE COOKIES

Ntoboafund.com uses cookies to determine how you interact with our site for the purpose of improving customer service. Information gathered via cookies may include the date and time of your visit, the duration of time spent on the site, the pages visited, and the website visited before you arrived at Ntoboafund.com. However, rest assured that the information provided as a result of this does not contain any data that might personally identify you.

WHAT IF YOU DON'T WANT TO ACCEPT COOKIES?

You can choose to delete cookies from your browsing history at any time by using the options provided in your web browser. You also have the option to disable cookies altogether, but it is worth noting that if you do so you might not be able to access all or parts of our website.
